Staff Photographer

Overview

The staff photographer will be responsible for recording the exciting experiences of clients at WB Surf Camp in a non-intrusive and primarily photojournalistic manner. The photographer should feel comfortable photographing subjects in a variety of technically challenging lighting conditions within small moments of time in order to provide Surf Camp Inc. with the best product representing the services that are provided. Photos will be taken throughout the day and should fully represent the experience of clients while they enjoy themselves at Surf Camp. At the end of each photo shoot, typically spread out among several days, the photos must be turned into Surf Camp Inc. offices for review and immediate distribution.
