WB Day Camp Unit Leader

Overview

The Unit Leader for WB Surf Camp's Day Camp program is an extroverted, multi-talented, service-oriented individual with a strong desire to provide surf and ocean safety instruction to campers of all ages. Our program attracts participants from all over the world that have the desire to learn how to surf. Applicants must have a passion for marine stewardship, teaching, inspiring youth, and surfing. This position requires candidates to work as part of a team to instruct and provide a safe learning environment to every group of participants.

The Unit Leader is responsible for leading daily program set up and break down, surfing instruction, logistical support, program equipment management, and delegating any duties assigned by leadership team. Most importantly, the Unit Leader must ensure that all staff and participants stay safe while having an awesome and life-enriching experience. No surf instruction experience is required for this position as all selected candidates will go through our comprehensive, in-house training and certification program, but you must be a proficient surfer. This position reports to the Program Coordinator.
